Credit Hours: 3

Contact Hours: This is a 3-credit course, offered in accelerated format. This means that 16 weeks of material is covered in 8 weeks. The exact number of hours per week that you can expect to spend on each course will vary based upon the weekly coursework, as well as your study style and preferences. You should plan to spend 14-20 hours per week in each course reading material, interacting on the discussion boards, writing papers, completing projects, and doing research.

COURSE DESCRIPTION AND OUTCOMES

Course Description:
This course examines the process of developing business policies and how strategies are formulated, implemented, and evaluated. Students will gain knowledge of how business strategies establish and influence the company’s position within its industry in light of those being utilized by competitors.

Course Overview:
This course examines the process of developing business policies and how strategies are formulated, implemented, and evaluated. Students will gain knowledge of how to develop a plan for organizational initiatives through the use of the strategic management process. Competitive analysis, decision making models and identifying both long and short-term business strategies for domestic as well as global organizations will be covered. Finally, students will learn to evaluate an organization’s strengths and weaknesses and explain how to enhance an organization’s market position through strategic alliances.

Course Learning Outcomes:
1. Apply the strategic management process to develop a plan for organizational initiatives.
2. Explain competitive analysis and its most popular models, generic and grand strategies for long-term objectives, and models for business and multi-business corporate strategy.
3. Apply decision making models and policies to the ethical choices the organization undertakes.
4. Identify business strategies that motivate the global expansion of the organization, promote diversity across cultures, and enhance growth using international resources.
5. Evaluate the strengths and weaknesses of an organization’s policies and strategies.
6. Differentiate between the organizations long-term and short-term strategies and how the time duration of strategies influences the policy change within the organization.
7. Explain how strategic alliances, both domestic and global, can enhance an organization’s market position.

4) Describe how you would implement your business strategy and assess the functional tactics you would implement.

The length and formatting requirements include:

- Eight to ten pages in length, not including cover and reference pages. Include a cover page, section headers, an introduction, a conclusion, and a reference page.
- Formatted according to the CSU-Global Guide to Writing & APA.
- Cite a minimum of three sources, two of which should be academic peer-reviewed scholarly sources to support your positions, claims, and observations, in addition to your textbook. The CSU-Global library is a great place to find these resources.

Throughout this course, be sure to use the Business Management & Administration Research Guide in the CSU-Global Library: https://csuglobal.libguides.com/c.php?g=791313
Here you can:

- Locate a variety of sources dealing with ethics, CSR, and business management.
- Gather information specific to different aspects of business ethics.
- Access writing and citing help.

Be sure to review the Critical Thinking Assignment Rubric in the Module folder for details regarding grading standards.

Your paper should be eight to ten pages in length and conform to CSU-Global Guide to Writing and APA. Include at least three scholarly references in addition to the course textbook. The CSU-Global Library is a good place to find these references.

Academic Integrity
Students must assume responsibility for maintaining honesty in all work submitted for credit and in any other work designated by the instructor of the course. Academic dishonesty includes cheating, fabrication, facilitating academic dishonesty, plagiarism, reusing /repurposing your own work (see CSU-Global Guide to Writing & APA for percentage of repurposed work that can be used in an assignment), unauthorized possession of academic materials, and unauthorized collaboration. The CSU-Global Library provides information on how students can avoid plagiarism by understanding what it is and how to use the Library and internet resources.

Citing Sources with APA Style
All students are expected to follow the CSU-Global Guide to Writing & APA when citing in APA (based on the most recent APA style manual) for all assignments. A link to this guide should also be provided within most assignment descriptions in your course.

Disability Services Statement
CSU-Global is committed to providing reasonable accommodations for all persons with disabilities. Any student with a documented disability requesting academic accommodations should contact the Disability Resource Coordinator at 720-279-0650 and/or email ada@CSUGlobal.edu for additional information to coordinate reasonable accommodations for students with documented disabilities.

Netiquette
Respect the diversity of opinions among the instructor and classmates and engage with them in a courteous, respectful, and professional manner. All posts and classroom communication must be conducted in accordance with the student code of conduct. Think before you push the Send button. Did you say just what you meant? How will the person on the other end read the words?

Maintain an environment free of harassment, stalking, threats, abuse, insults, or humiliation toward the instructor and classmates. This includes, but is not limited to, demeaning written or oral comments of an ethnic, religious, age, disability, sexist (or sexual orientation), or racist nature; and the unwanted sexual advances or intimidations by email, or on discussion boards and other postings within or connected to the online classroom. If you have concerns about something that has been said, please let your instructor know.
